Ginkgo has been inspired by nature and the Japanese design principle of Wabi-Sabi, seeking beauty in imperfection. Striking organic shapes are harmonised with a delicate illustration of the distinctive fan shaped leaf from the ginkgo biloba tree. With simplistic shapes and soft curves Ginkgo is ideal for relaxed dining with understated elegance. Safe for both microwave and dishwasher, the Ginkgo range is suitable for everyday use.

Tsuma, meaning stack, is inspired by Japanese Design and is reminiscent of an old Japanese pottery process called Raku where pieces are fired at a low temperature and then buried to create colour and texture. Originally used as part of Japanese tea ceremonies most often in the form of tea bowls, the pottery was rustic in appearance and usually found in earthy tones. A similar effect can be seen on the bases of the Tsuma collection which are unglazed and smoky. The contemporary tea set is glazed with dark grey while the other box sets include four rich matte. Colours - Dark Grey, Green, Peacock Blue and Paprika.

Studio Collection

Studio is a new collection created in-house by our design and production teams at Belleek Pottery. Overlooking Lower Lough Erne, stands our impressive factory and creative design studio in County Fermanagh. Established in 1857, over 60 craftspeople manufacture our famous Parian China using the same skills passed down through the generations. Each hand crafted piece originates as a concept in the studio, where our product designers take inspiration from our museum archive, travel, galleries and surrounding nature. Images, colour and techniques are collated and developed into next season's Artisan Homeware collections. 'A celebration of Craftmanship, this collection uses timeless techniques connecting with contemporary style. The design process has remained the same over the years, where hand drawings are translated into plaster models and moulds using a lathe, potter's wheel and metal tools used to apply surface texture and pattern. This is our favourite stage of the design process, where we get our hands dirty and have the freedom to create something new from scratch. The result is a range of functional, everyday designs for your home paying homage to our arts and crafts heritage. A piece of Irish history, our production team transforms our concepts into stunning individual pieces made here at home for your home.'

The Lustre Collection has been developed to celebrate the long established use of lustre. Where it has been applied to fun contemporary shapes to create a modern twist on a traditional technique.

Jasmine Basket

It is thought that lustre glazes were applied to pottery in Mesopotamia as early as the 9th century and the technique later became popular in Persia and Syria in the 12th century. Unlike these early Eastern lustres that were bold and brightly coloured, Belleek Pottery's founding partner, Robert Armstrong strived to produce lustreware with much softer colours inspired by the iridescent qualities of sea shells.

Here at Belleek Pottery we have been using lustre decoration since the 1870's to adorn pieces with iridescent washes of colour and mother of pearl.

The Jasmine basket has been developed to celebrate this long established use of lustre, where it has been applied to create a modern twist on a traditional technique.

The Irish Wild Rose has been inspired from local hedgerows found around the Fermanagh Lakelands where Irish roses grow wild during the summer months with rose hips later budding in the Autumn. The flowers are beautifully hand painted with mother of pearl and grey tones are used to highlight the butterfly and bumble bee.

Etch Mugs

With vintage style imagery influenced by Victorian prints and printing techniques, the Etch Mugs are a celebration of Belleek Pottery's past. These mugs have been inspired by Belleek's now retired method of tissue transfer printing and our archive of copper printing plates. Beautifully detailed engraved copper printing plates were once used to print onto tissue paper; this tissue paper was then used to transfer the print directly onto the ware before it was fired. Although we no longer employ this method of printing, the Etch mugs are handcrafted in Ireland where the processes of manufacture have remained mostly unchanged for over 160 years.

Curio (4 Mug Set)

12cm(L) x 8.5cm(D) x 10cm(H) x 390mlC

NEW

Curio Mugs

Belleek Pottery was established in 1857, this era was the 'heyday of natural history'. Victorians were fascinated by the natural world and established Entomology as an important discipline. Bug collecting and classification became a popular activity and it was common place to proudly display insects such as butterflies and beetles. Hand crafted in Ireland, the Curio Mugs have been inspired by this 'curious' pastime and are a celebration of Belleek Pottery's Victorian past.

Handcrafted in Ireland Since 1857

Each piece of Belleek is created by 16 individual artisans. From design to production to quality control at our historic pottery, a process that has changed very little since 1857.

Design

Belleek's dedicated team of in-house designers carry out trend and market research to bring new designs to the marketplace. Computer aided drawings and traditional drawings are produced and carefully selected.

Modelling

A three - dimensional plaster or clay model is created from the design drawings. This is an accurate reproduction of the design showing every intricate detail and surface relief.

Moulds

An initial mould will be made from the three - dimensional model, a second mould will be made from this first mould. This second mould is called the 'Case Mould' and will be used to make all the subsequent working moulds. Belleek's Master Mould Chamber contains Block Mould dating as far back as the 1860's.

Basket & Flower Making

Belleek's world famous Baskets and flowers are intricately hand woven with meticulous detail using extruded spaghetti like strands. Each flower is hand - crafted, often petal by petal and carefully hand applied.

Casting

The moulds are filled to the top with slip liquid clay. After the allotted time, the excess slip is poured off and the moulds are left to dry. As the piece dries, it shrinks away from the mould and in time it can be gently separated. The slip has now become clay.

Fettling

Fettling is the skilled sharpening or delineation of the pattern. This intricate process also includes the elimination of seams, smoothing, rounding of edges and the fitting together of parts like handles.

Firing

Every piece of Belleek will go through upto 3 different firing processes in our kilns. This includes the "biscuit" firing, the "gloss" or glaze firing and the final "enamel" firing.

Stamping

Perfect items that have passed quality control are given the famous Belleek trademark stamp. This stamp indicates when the product was made and that your Belleek is authentic.

Painting

Any decorated pieces of Belleek will be hand painted using enamel paints before it's final firing process to "fix" the enamel and stamp.

Belleek's reputation has been built on product excellence. Only Belleek of the highest quality is ever put on sale.

Back in 1857, the pottery's founder John Caldwell Bloomfield declared that any piece with even the slightest flaw should be destroyed.

Over 164 years later, this golden rule is strictly adhered to. The result is perfection.

Trademarks & Collectors Society

Belleek Trademarks

All Belleek marks, with minor exceptions, include symbols which are unmistakably Irish, i.e. the Irish Wolfhound with the head turned to face one of Ireland's distinctive round towers - the model for which is believed to have been Davenish Round Tower on the Lower Lough Erne's Davenish Island. The Irish harp and two sprigs of shamrock border the ends of the banner at the base of the design which carries the single word BELLEEK in capital letters. The years given denote the approximate date of production.

Heritage

New to Belleek for 2021, our Design Team have finely hand crafted these brand new Heritage pieces. Synonymous with the renowned quality of Belleek since 1857 each decorative piece is truly special.

Inspired from our vast Archive held in the Museum, the Periwinkle Basket is delicately woven into a soft square shape with carefully placed small Periwinkle flowers and rose buds. Hand painted using an array of pinks, blues and whites with soft green leaves and handles this 10 Inch basket is a stunning addition for your collection.

Hand painted detailing brings our covered Honey Pot alive with honeybees which are busy buzzing around the pink Apple Blossom flowers and branch detail forming the petite handle on the lid. A functional piece, the dish can be used for honey, jams or condiments having room for a small spoon at the side of the dish.

Belleek's animal ornaments are always popular and this Sheep and Lamb Ornament took the craftspeople at Belleek months to perfect. Here the Mother Ewe lies protecting her Lamb, probably from the unreliable Irish weather! Elements of the piece are unglazed, so to show off the fine facial details creating contrasts of matt parian and our famous ivory glaze.

Each piece is stamped with our Made in Ireland Backstamp and Trademark.

Belleek Classic: Tableware

Trinity Knot

New to Belleek, this timeless Trinity Knot Tableware collection has been inspired by ancient Celtic Knot artwork. This simple trio of lines create patterns which are said to be a symbol of Love and can also represent the Godhead or Spirit, Mind and Soul. The symbol frequently appears in Ancient Irish manuscripts such as the Book of Kells, Gospel in Latin, which can be viewed in the Library at Trinity College, Dublin. The designers at Belleek have used simple shapes to create beautifully hand embossed tableware which can be used everyday. Each piece of Irish Porcelain is Made in Ireland with a Belleek stamp on the base as a sign of Authenticity.

All pieces are Dishwasher and Microwave safe.

Claddagh

The Belleek Claddagh Collection is inspired by the history of the Claddagh which goes back over four hundred years when a Spanish goldsmith fell in love with a girl from the Claddagh Village. He crafted the first Claddagh ring for her. Since then the Claddagh ring has become a token of love throughout the world. Its symbols of a heart under a crown held by hands represent love, friendship and loyalty.

All pieces are Dishwasher, Microwave, Freezer and Oven safe.

Shamrock

Shamrock Tableware, with its basketweave, is a timeless design first created in the 1880's. The simplicity of the pattern is based on the weave used in wickerwork baskets, once a common feature of both town and country. The design also cleverly uses the stems of the shamrocks to shape such features as the handles and details of the design. It remains an iconic collection, one symbolic of Belleek's long craft tradition. Tableware also available with gold rim.

Connemara Collection

These beautiful hand painted designs have been inspired by the Irish region of Connemara, an area of outstanding beauty in the West of Ireland facing the Atlantic. The National Park is a place of contrasts, colour and wilderness with its mountains, lakes, hand built stone walls and thatched cottages. You are expected to give way to the sheep which are usually sitting in the middle of the road! The areas main town, Clifden has several venues for traditional Irish music and still contains a vast part of the connacht Irish-speaking Gaeltacht.

A little piece of Ireland these pieces make a beautiful breakfast collection and finish of your table with the beautiful vase to display some nice fresh flowers in. As each piece of Belleek is unique, they will also make interesting conversational pieces to set proudly on your kitchen dresser. Hand wash only.

Mug of Hope

This mug was designed by Belleek Collector and cancer survivor Johannah Purdon to help with funding to find a medical cure for a disease that leaves no family untouched. For every mug sold 20% of the sales will be donated to Cancer Research UK, The Irish Cancer Society and The American Cancer Society. In Johannah's words " I AM A SURVIVOR! Three words you never want to hear "You have cancer!" Me?? - I have cancer? How is that possible?? Your life is forever changed after that. The journey begins with educating yourself on the disease and what treatment is available.

One of the bright spots in my life has been my love of Belleek and the Collectors Society. It has brought me much joy on dark days as I have all my Belleek Family! Cancer has taught me to treasure each moment and live life fully. My motto in life has always been: "Live, Laugh, Love, Sing, Dance" Share a hug and tell someone you love them today! I do so more fiercely today! I am Johannah! I am a SURVIVOR! I am HOPE!

Lets fill these Mugs of Hope and help find a cure!"

Edition Piece

Irish Pub Votive 2021 Edition Piece

This charming Irish Pub Votive is a replica of those which are found in every Irish Village and also scattered through the countryside of rural Ireland. Here local gossip is exchanged and wondrous stories told. It was common to have someone playing a fiddle starting a sing-song around an open fire where weary travellers could get refreshments or accommodation overnight to resume their journey in the morning.

Simply add a votive candle or LED to create a lovely Irish accent to a room. Hand painted with intricate details such as the red painted windows and the bicycle propped up against the side of the wall, it also has a lucky shamrock placed above the archway at the back. The perfect piece to start off your new Belleek Irish Village Collection.

We hope you enjoy the 2021 Edition piece which is signed by the designer and will only be available in store for one year.

Annual Basket

The Hanako Basket has been patiently hand woven in an organic shape to reflect that of a pond and features hand applied elements depicting aquatic flora and fauna. The longest living fresh water fish ever recorded was a female koi named Hanako, she lived to the grand age of 226.

The koi represents longevity, perseverance and abundance. Hand crafted water lilies surround the 'pond'. Water lilies have been represented in art throughout history, even dating back to ancient Egypt. The water lily, a striking bloom that emerges from mud, is a symbol of enlightenment, beauty and purity. Menyanthes, a traditional pond margin plant, represents tranquillity, repose and calmness. A frog overlooks the 'pond'; a symbol of fertility and transformation. In Celtic traditions the frog is seen as healing and cleansing, as well as an emblem of rebirth.

This striking basket receives a special backstamp and will only be produced for the year of 2021.

Baskets

The creation of each Belleek Basket tells us a story about the amazing art of Belleek Basket making. Basket and flower making was introduced to Belleek by William Henshall who came to work for Belleek Pottery in the late 1860's. Over the next forty years he developed the craft and trained the local craftsmen in the necessary skills. These in turn passed their skills down through the following generations to the present day. Each basket comes gift boxed and with a Certificate of Authenticity.

Quiet Man Cottage

The cottage used as the house belonging to the “Quiet Man” was located in Cong, Co. Mayo situated in the west of Ireland.

The cottage, then lived in by the Joyce family, was used as part of the set in the 1952 film called the Quiet Man starring John Wayne and Maureen O’Hara as well as then veteran actor Barry Fitzgerald. John Ford who made it as homage to his own Irish background directed the film. He was born Sean Aloysius Feeney O’Fearná in 1895 in Maine, the youngest of thirteen children born to Irish immigrants.

The film received a total of seven Academy Award nominations (including Best Picture, Best Supporting Actor - Victor McLaglen, Best Screenplay - Frank Nugent, Best Art Direction and Best Sound) and won two Oscars Best Cinematography - Winton Hoch and Archie Stout, and Ford (at 57 years of age) won his fourth and final Best Director Oscar, establishing a record that is still unbeaten.

The Quiet Man cottage since then has become a memorable and popular tourist attraction in the village of Cong.

The “Quiet Man” cottage votive is a lovely gift to give and a much appreciated addition to any Belleek Collection.

Daisy

Resident Belleek Designer Frederick Slater designed the Daisy Vase in the 1890's. One day as he looked out the window of the Pottery, which overlooks the River Erne he saw a little girl picking daisies. He sketched her and he noted the way she clutched the Daisies, the shape of which became the design of the vase. Many years later the popularity of this vase led Belleek to expand the range, making up the present Daisy Collection.

Annual Christmas Ornament

Mussenden Temple Annual Bell Ornament 2021

This year's Annual Christmas Ornament has been inspired by Mussenden Temple which is situated overlooking the Atlantic Ocean between Downhill Demesne and Castlerock in Northern Ireland.

This former library was built in 1785 and forms part of the Bishop of Derry and Earl of Bristol's Estate. Frederick Augustus Hervey, built this beautiful building as a summer library which was inspired by Roman architecture and named after his beloved cousin, Mrs Frideswide Mussenden. Around the top there is a Latin inscription which reads,

"Tis pleasant, safely to behold from shore, the troubled sailor, and hear the tempests roar"

Hand painted, mother of pearl lustre has been used for the roof with gold highlights and a lucky shamrock on the reverse. Hand crafted at historical Belleek Pottery, Mussenden Temple is the 34th Annual Edition Ornament and will only be available in 2021.

HEIRLOOM BELLEEK JEWELLERY

Decades of Heritage and craftsmanship have influenced the creation of our exclusive Heirloom Jewellery Collection. New for 2021, the designers and artisans at Belleek celebrate the timeless tradition of flower making which was introduced by William Henshall in 1867. This exquisite skill has been passed down through the generations and remains an important part of our Basketweave department in Belleek Pottery to this day where we continue to produce the world renowned Belleek Fine Parian China.

Each unique piece of beautifully hand crafted jewellery is an original design from our In-house studio and Archive. Lovingly created to be worn and enjoyed for years to come, the Floral Collection celebrates femininity and elegance. Hand crafted, our porcelain clay is delicately formed into a range of flowers including Irish roses, Forget-me-nots, Daisies and Chrysanthemums. Hand painted using a soft palette of new lustre glaze, every flower is unique so no two will ever be exactly the same. You can choose from a range of brooches, necklaces and earrings which combine Sterling Silver findings. Presented in a luxury Belleek keepsake box, each piece also includes your own Certificate of Authenticity.

Irish Hallmarked Sterling Silver Jewellery

Galway Irish Crystal is proud to launch our exciting new collection of Irish Hallmarked Sterling Silver Jewellery.

Taking inspiration from Galway City, both vibrant and historic this collection of beautiful Sterling Silver Jewellery is effortlessly stylish and contemporary, whilst standing the test of time as true heirloom pieces.

Looking to timeless Celtic motifs like the Claddagh, Trinity Knot and Tree of Life and re-imagining them with contemporary elements - like incorporated cut crystal gems, rose gold and gold plating and stacking rings to name a few. Our Sterling Silver Jewellery encompasses the values of quality, design and craftsmanship long associated with Galway Irish Crystal.

Story of the Claddagh

The timeless Claddagh symbol has held a special place in Irish folklore and tradition for generations. The first claddagh ring is believed to have been designed at some time during the 16th Century in the fishing village of the Claddagh, now part of Galway City. Claddagh Rings are infused with symbolism and meaning.

The Heart symbolises Love

Weddings

Engraving is especially popular with weddings, to mark the date on Champagne Flutes for the Bridal toast, a item for a gift or for wedding favours.

Clubs / Sporting

Does your club have its own logo? We can use this on your prizes, or if not we can use a symbol specific to your club activity.

Heraldry

We have a vast database of Irish Coat of Arms, very popular for anniversaries and weddings. If your coat of arms is not one of Irish origin, simply supply a copy.

Corporate

For long service awards or sponsor pieces, engraving with your company logo will ensure the prominence of your corporate image.

Time Frame

Please allow approximately 1 - 2 weeks for each order to be completed. Depending on the size of the order and detail involved, engraving may require more lead time. Rush orders can be accommodated.
